

REGISTER NOW

GETTING BETTER WITH EVIDENCE: Experiences of putting evidence into practice

10 December 2019

Auckland Medical Research Foundation Auditorium,
Grafton Campus, University of Auckland

Co-hosted by the Health Quality & Safety Commission, the University of Auckland, the British Medical Journal and the Oxford Centre for Evidence-Based Medicine.

'Getting better with evidence: Experiences of putting evidence into practice' is a one-day conference where delegates can learn from experts about putting evidence into practice, and discuss the challenges currently being faced in health care.

This is a New Zealand first, bringing the internationally acclaimed EBMLive to Auckland.

The conference will have three themes:

1. Gathering and disseminating better evidence
2. Translating evidence into action
3. Building solutions, the roles of big data, randomised control trials (RCTs) and real-world evidence

The programme includes keynote presentations and concurrent seminars, delivered by leading international and local experts, with a focus on the needs of the New Zealand audience, including increasing equity and addressing over-diagnosis and over-treatment.

Keynote speakers include:

- Fiona Godlee, BMJ (UK)
- Prof Papaarangi Reid, University of Auckland
- Catherine Marshall, consumer advocate (NZ)
- Carl Heneghan, Centre for Evidence-Based Medicine (UK)
- Prof Matthew Parsons, Waikato DHB and the University of Auckland
- Ray Moynihan, academic researcher, author and award-winning health journalist (Australia)
- Prof Cindy Farquhar, University of Auckland
- Assoc Prof Sue Crengle, University of Otago
- Assoc Prof Rachael Parke, University of Auckland and Auckland DHB

Registration

All prices are in New Zealand dollars and are GST inclusive.

	Earlybird (until 1 November 2019)	Standard (from 2 November 2019)
Full registration	$320 including GST	$375 including GST
Student/ consumer/ charities	$260 including GST	$300 including GST

Register here

For more information, visit the Oxford Centre for Evidence-Based Medicine's website or contact events@hqsc.govt.nz

Programme

Time
8:00am	Registration opens
9:00am	Mihi whakataua
9:10am	Introduction and welcome Dr Ashley Bloomfield, director-general and chief executive, Ministry of Health
9:30am	Keynote: Gathering and disseminating better evidence 20-minute presentations, followed by a 30-minute panel discussion
	Fiona Godlee, editor-in-chief, British Medical Journal , London, UK	Prof Papaarangi Reid, head of department of Māori health, Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, University of Auckland	Prof Matthew Parsons, professor of gerontology, Waikato District Health Board (DHB) and the University of Auckland
11:00am	Morning tea
11:30am	Keynote: Translating evidence into action 20-minute presentations, followed by a 30-minute panel discussion
	Catherine Marshall, independent health and guideline adviser, and consumer advocate	Dr Ray Moynihan, assistant professor and national health and medical research early career fellow, Centre for Research in Evidence-Based Practice, Bond University, Queensland, Australia	Prof Cindy Farquhar, postgraduate professor of obstetrics and gynaecology, Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, University of Auckland
1:00pm	Lunch
1:45pm	CONCURRENT SEMINARS
	Room 505-007	Room 501-010
	Implementation in a difficult environment Assoc Prof Sue Crengle, Department of Preventive and Social Medicine Dr Rees Tapsell, director of clinical services, Mental Health & Addictions Service Executive clinical director, PUAWAI: Midland Regional Forensic Psychiatric Service	Public understanding of evidence Catherine Marshall
	Room 503-028	Room 503-020
	Real-world appraisal Carl Heneghan, general practitioner and director of the Oxford Centre for Evidence-Based Medicine	Partnering with consumers around evidence on drugs Jeff Harrison, head of school, pharmacy, University of Auckland
3:15pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	Keynote: Building solutions - the roles of big data, randomised controlled trials and real-world evidence 20-minute presentations, followed by a 30-minute panel discussion
	Assoc Prof Sue Crengle	Assoc Prof Rachael Parke, School of Nursing, University of Auckland; nurse senior research fellow, cardiothoracic and vascular intensive care unit, Auckland DHB	Carl Heneghan
5:00pm	Summary and close Professor Alan Merry, deputy dean, Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, University of Auckland
5:30-7:00pm	Networking event Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences Atrium, University of Auckland		